Firemen Answer False Alarm

Elba Rescue Squad member George Windham is shown demonstrating a metal cutting saw to Fire Chief Charles Cox. The saw belongs to the Rescue Squad, but is being placed on the fire trucks due to the need of a fire truck almost every time the saw is used at a fire. The fire truck is necessary due to the danger of the sparks igniting spilled gasoline.

New Streamlined Mail Service In Effect

The U.S. Postal Service first-class mail service improvement program went into effect at the Elba Post Office on October 11, 1975, according to Postmaster Robert Cooper.

Copters To Perform At Festival

The National Peanut Festival will present the Golden Knights and the Silver Eagles at the old City Airport at 3:30 p.m., Wednesday, October 22. The show is free and the public is invited.

Trustee At Large From County Jail

A 32-year-old trustee who walked away from the County Jail last Thursday afternoon was still at large Wednesday as THE ELBA CLIPPER went to press. The trustee, Jimmy Ray Walker, was awaiting trial for grand larceny when he walked away from a work detail at the Elba courthouse.

Elba Students In TSU Play

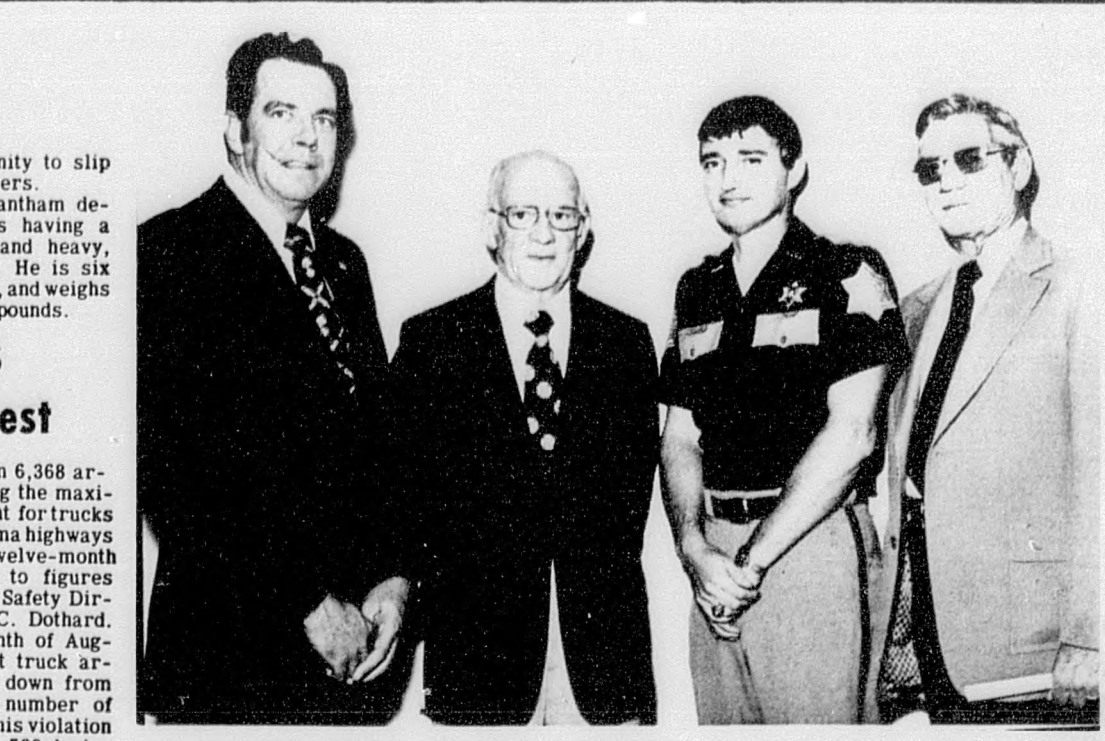

Two Elba students attending Troy State University are involved in the play "A Man For All Seasons," now underway in Smith Hall Auditorium at Troy. Nancy Taylor portrays Lady Alice Moore, and Tony Martin directs sound design.

Cornelia To Be Featured On TV

Remember the technicians hovering around Mrs. Wallace on Cornelia Wallace Day in Elba recently? Well, they were putting together a documentary on the first lady, and it is to be on the air next week.

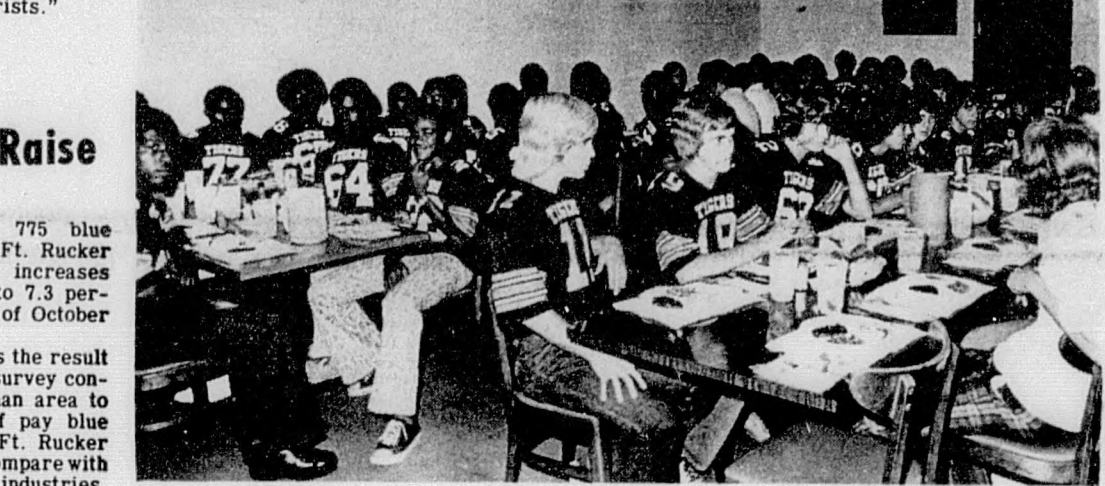

"Uncle Charlie" Subject Of Army Article

A walk that is brisk with the ways to describe a gentleman that is 122 years young. Born in 1854 into slavery, Uncle Charlie has been a life-long resident of Alabama. "My earliest recollection was living with a Potter family in Gordon, Ala.," Uncle Charlie said. "I don't remember my mother and father were because I was sold as a child. The Potters were my mammy and daddy."

Judge Paul Speaks To Grads

Football Team Enjoys Free Meal

The Elba football team was treated to a hamburger steak supper last Friday afternoon at the Big R Restaurant just prior to their win over Brundage. The meal was enjoyed by team members, coaches and managers, and the publisher of The Elba Clipper, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Weeks.

Workers Get Pay Raise

Approximately 775 blue collar workers at Ft. Rucker will receive pay increases ranging from 1.2 to 2.3 percent effective as of October 5.

Prize Possession

Probably the most prized possession the old Negro owns is his Bible. Several years ago his home burned down and everything in it was lost. "I lost my Bible in that fire," he said, "but my white boys brought me a new one. They look out for their Uncle Charlie."

FRANCE DECIDES TO AID AMERICA

On March 1, the French Foreign Minister, Count Vergennes, wrote to the foreign minister of Spain, Grimaldi, asking his reaction to joint secret measures to provide help for Britain's rebellious colonists. Spain showed herself receptive. Thereupon Louis XVI ordered (May 2) that 1 million livres' worth of munitions be supplied the Americans through a fictitious company, Rodrigues Hortales, actually administered by secret agent Pierre de Beaumarchais.

Charles III of Spain made a similar arrangement shortly afterward. From these sources the American armies were to receive over 80% of their gunpowder, to mention but one type of military supplies. Because of ignorance of these developments, it was voted to send Siles Deane to Europe to purchase war material. This action made inevitable the resolution of April 6, an important forerunner of the Declaration of Independence, opening the ports of the colonies to the trade of all nations but Britain. Deane arrived in Paris on July 7.

FRENCH CLUB

Le Cercle Francis d'Elbe met on October 2, 1975 in the auditorium. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Padgett. Everyone stood and sang "La Marseillaise." Mrs. Padgett reminded everyone about paying club dues. The French Club has asked the French Club to be responsible for the nomination, election and presentation of officers at Homecoming '75. The floor was then opened to the nomination and election of officers.

Mrs. Brunson Honored On Birthday

The children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren of Mrs. Arthur Brunson, gathered at the family farm, the Pea River Chateau, on Sunday, Oct. 12 to honor her on the occasion of her eighty-sixth birthday. Mrs. Brunson, an Elba native, is Lee Homemakers Club Meets

Club Meets

Mrs. Eva Easters and Mrs. Roy Hudson entertained the Lee Homemakers' Club in the home of Mrs. Easters on Sept. 23rd. Pretty arrangements of early fall flowers added beauty to the reception room where the meeting was held.

Mrs. Jim Whitman, club president, conducted a brief business session. Mrs. Price Ringo read the minutes of the previous meeting. After the Pledge of Allegiance to the American flag, Mrs. Watkins gave a devotional thought and led the group in prayer. The Lord's Prayer, Mrs. William Ballard led in singing. The program was a lesson in parliamentary procedure and was given by Mrs. W. R. Crook. A social hour followed. The hostesses served a delicious party plate with punch to those already named and Mrs. Foush Lee, Mrs. W. Westbrook, and Mrs. Will Kendrick.

Kay Lewis Weds George Farris

Miss Kay Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lewis, Jr., and George Farris, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson Farris, were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony on July 20, 1975, at 3:00 in the afternoon in the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Ann Rogers, of Enterprise. Serving as surrogate parents for Mr. Farris were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Farris of Elba.

Mrs. Farris is the granddaughter of Mrs. Eunice D. Lewis, New Hope, and the late Mr. J. C. Lewis, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mauldin of Elba. The groom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Farris of Elba, and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Holmes of Enterprise.

Officiating at the ceremony was Rev. Ned Young, pastor of Liberty Church of Christ. The bride and groom exchanged their wedding vows before a twelve-light candle-lit altar. The ceremony was followed by a reception with refreshments and greenery. Appropriate wedding selections were played.

NEWS from your PHARMACIST KRIS SCARBOROUGH

Most individuals have had their blood pressure checked at one time or another, but few realize the significance attached to this routine medical practice.

Thousands of deaths are attributed annually to high blood pressure. Blood pressure is a measure of the pressure that the blood exerts on the walls of the vessels through which it flows. This can be abnormally high or low. Blood pressure can be affected by many factors—for instance, a person who is overweight usually has a higher blood pressure than those of their same age.

Blood pressure is also raised by psychological factors such as fright or excitement. Most cases of abnormal blood pressure can be controlled with the proper treatment and advice from your physician.

We make a habit of helping keep your blood pressure "normal" by giving you the very best in service and values. Let us fill your prescriptions promptly and accurately. Our trained pharmacists give the best in personal attention to your every pharmaceutical need.

Chief Johnston Tells BPW of Self-Protection

The Elba Business and Professional Women's Club met Monday night, Oct. 13, 1975 at the Elba Country Club. 13 members and two visitors were present. The visitors were Mrs. Jane Rich and Miss Sue Griffin.

Mrs. Carrie Jacobs were in charge of the program, "War on Rape" and "Self-Protection." Mrs. Ziglar introduced the speaker, Mr. E.M. Johnston, Elba's Chief of Police. His thought provoking talk got the interest of all. He also stated the police department was offering two courses in self-protection and the use of fire arms. All ladies who are interested in these courses are to call Chief Johnston or Mable Lawless-President of the B.P.W.

Myrtle Sellers, Foundation chairman, reminded members that Oct. 19th through 25th was the week for observing B. P. W. Foundation Week. Members will observe the week by attending church at the First Baptist Church on Sunday, Oct. 19th.

A boiled or baked medium-sized potato provides approximately the same amount of calories as a large apple.

Music Lovers Club Meets

The Music Lovers Club met Oct. 9 with twenty-eight members of the Elba Nursing Home in the dining hall. The members sang many old time familiar songs. Among these were Billy Boy, The Little Brown Church, Wait For The Wagon, She'll be Comin' Around the Mountain, and Camp Town Races.

Mrs. Kasper Anderson, President, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Edwin Cooper, Secretary, read the minutes. The Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Price Ringo Treasurer, gave the financial report. The Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Price Ringo, read a letter from Alabama Sheriff's Association regarding the club voted to send the Ranch a donation of $10.00.

Pilot Club Reminds Of Operation Santa Claus

The Pilot Club is asking for any toys that are no longer wanted. These toys are to be used in Operation Santa Claus and will be repaired if broken. They may be taken to the Elba Police Department or picked up by a Pilot Club member. If called.

THANKS FOR CARINIVAL SUCCESS The Pilot Club expresses thanks to the citizens of Elba and surrounding communities for their support of the recent carnival.

Proceeds from this carnival will also be used in the Operation Santa Claus project.

Operation Santa Claus provides toys for children who might otherwise be without at Christmas.

TIGERS UP TO 3-3

I wasn't at the Elba game last week, but when I got back to town, everyone was telling me that the Tigers whipped Brundidge much worse than the 19-6 score indicates.

Well, when I looked at the Stats, I realized what everyone was talking about.

The Elba offense unit rolled to 435 yards in total offense, while the defense held the Brundidge offense to a mere 32 yards. The Tigers' trio of "sophomore backs" combined for 287 yards on the ground. Larry Phillips led the way with 175 yards, followed by James Smith with 60 yards, and Johnny Dyess with 32 yards.

Max Fuller continued to improve in the passing department hitting 3 of 5 for 75 yards. If Max can keep the opposing defenses thinking about his passing ability, the running backs should find the going a little easier.

If Elba is to win this week, Max must pass to keep the big Greenville line from killing the Tiger backs!

PREP ROUND-UP

The Zion Chapel Rebels bounced back in the win column by crushing Goshen, 30-6. The win should give the Rebels momentum going into this week's encounter with Wicksburg.

The crystal ball continued to roll along by routing Greenville, 56-15. The first string Andy defense held Greenville without a first down in the opening half while building a 28-0 lead.

The Opp Bobcats finally paid Eufaula back for the past few years by dumping the Tigers 26-7. The win gives Opp a 5-2 slate.

New Brockton lost its seventh straight by losing to Ft. Deposit 18-6. Maybe the Gamecocks will put it together this week for homecoming.

Geneva wrapped up the Geneva County title by blanking Hartford, 21-0. The Panthers have improved steadily since their two early losses to Ashford and Enterprise.

PICKS

The crystal ball came through on 21 of 25 picks last week for 84% correct. It seems that the new ball is improving greatly, and I'm expecting it to hit 90% before the season closes.

ELBA-GREENVILLE Elba is sailing high after two straight wins. All signs point toward an Elba upset, but I'm picking Greenville to outmuscle the Tigers! Greenville 15 - Elba 13

ZION CHAPEL-WICKSBURG The Rebels have their work cut out for them against the unbeaten Panthers. I want to pick the Rebels in an upset, but the crystal ball says "NO." Wicksburg 24 - Zion Chapel 16

BRANTLEY-KINSTON Kinston's schedule just doesn't get any easier. Brantley will win just as bad as they want to! Brantley 47 - Kinston 6

NEW BROCKTON-LONG The Gamecocks celebrate homecoming this week. I hope the players will be able to go to the dance! Long 34 - New Brockton 12

OPP-GENEVA The "Game of the Week" in south Alabama. Opp is having its best year since 1970. This week they'll go to 6-2. Opp 21 - Geneva 7

Zion Chapel To Test Unbeaten Wicksburg

The Zion Chapel Rebels face their biggest challenge of the season Friday night when they host the unbeaten Wicksburg Panthers.

The Panthers boast a perfect 6-0 record, with wins over Houston Academy, Columbia, Daleville, Coffee Springs, New Brockton and G.W. Long.

The Rebels and Panthers have faced two similar opponents: Wicksburg beat Houston Academy, 28-0, while Zion Chapel lost to Houston Academy, 18-6, but defeated New Brockton, 36-12.

In a recent telephone interview with Wicksburg coach Tom Vickers, the Panther leader was concerned about the upcoming game. "We have all the respect in the world for Zion Chapel," he said.

"They're without a doubt the best team we'll play during the regular season," said Vickers. "You've got to stop their offense, and you've got to stop their defense."

Vickers said that there were three keys to beating the Rebels. "You've got to stop their offense, and you've got to stop their defense," he said.

Continuing, Vickers said, "Tim Sanders is an excellent quarterback and a good passer. Big Jirright just runs over, and he'll get 5 yards a carry."

Coach Vickers felt that the key to the Panthers' success was their total team effort. "We run two basic formations - a split 4 and a 6-1 - and they run them both real well!

They have a solid defensive team," added Johns, "and despite what Andalusia did to 'em, they are tough."

Coach Johns gave the following keys to a Tiger victory. "We must overcome our weight disadvantage and control the line of scrimmage. This is the biggest challenge our offensive line has had all year."

"Defensively," added the Tiger coach, "we must play alert football, especially in the line, because of their 'trap' play."

In closing, Coach Johns said, "It is going to be a tough game, but I think our young men will be ready."

They are a good football team," said Johns in a recent interview, "and they are a lot bigger than us."

Continuing, Vickers said, "Tim Sanders is an excellent quarterback and a good passer. Big Jirright just runs over, and he'll get 5 yards a carry."

Coach Vickers felt that the key to the Panthers' success was their total team effort. "We run two basic formations - a split 4 and a 6-1 - and they run them both real well!

They have a solid defensive team," added Johns, "and despite what Andalusia did to 'em, they are tough."

Coach Johns gave the following keys to a Tiger victory. "We must overcome our weight disadvantage and control the line of scrimmage. This is the biggest challenge our offensive line has had all year."

"Defensively," added the Tiger coach, "we must play alert football, especially in the line, because of their 'trap' play."

In closing, Coach Johns said, "It is going to be a tough game, but I think our young men will be ready."

They are a good football team," said Johns in a recent interview, "and they are a lot bigger than us."

TIGERS MAUL BRUNDIDGE 19-6

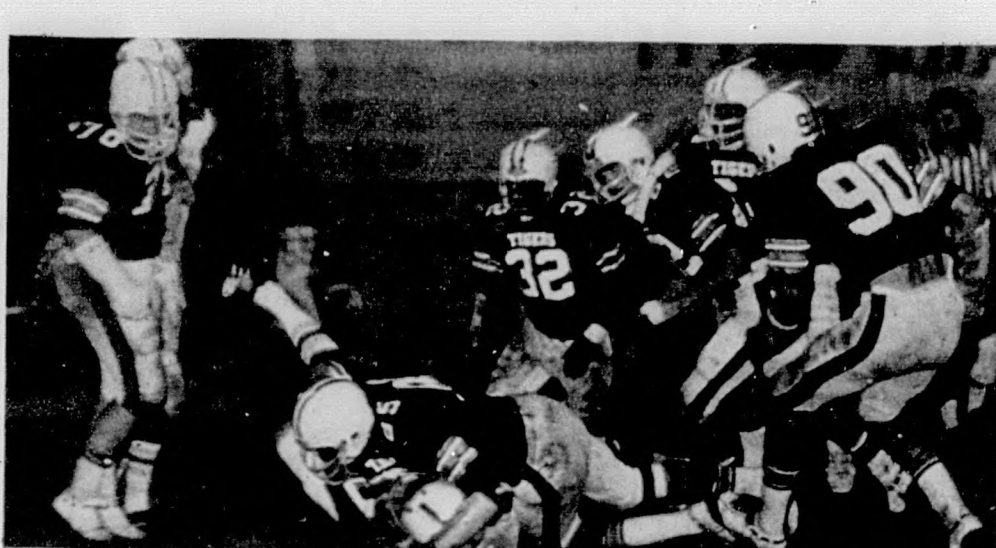

EVEN RECORD AT 3-3

Tiger running back James Smith (32) turns corner for big gain in win over Brundidge.

David Smith (52) grabs jersey of Bulldog's Tony Flournoy (88) as Teddy Barnes (85), and unidentified Tiger make tackle.

Teddy Barnes (85) stops Bulldog back for no gain as host of Tigers rush in with aid.

Steven Harrelson (37) finds tough going against Brundidge defense

Stan Lewis (88) is all alone as he jogs in with Fuller pass for initial Elba score.

The Elba Tigers, led by a rock-hard defense, overcame costly mistakes in the opening half to score 13 points in the third quarter as they defeated the Brundidge Bulldogs, 19-6, last Friday night in Elba.

The win evened the Tigers' chart at 3-3, while the loss leaves Brundidge with an identical 3-3 record.

Brundidge received the opening kick, but failed to move, and punted to the Tigers. Elba took over on their 24-yard line, and promptly marched in for a score.

Elba's "sophomore sensation," Larry Phillips, bailed for five yards on the Tigers' initial play, followed by a 9-yard gallop by Phillips' "sophomore sidekick" James Smith. Phillips added nine yards on his next carry, moving Elba to their own 49-yard line. On the second down play, Elba quarterback Max Fuller caught the Bulldog defense off guard, and lofted a 51-yard touchdown to Stan Lewis.

The extra point was blocked, and with 9:06 left in the first quarter, Elba led 6-0.

The Bulldogs offense again failed to move following the kick, and were forced to punt. This time the Tigers took over on their own 9-yard line, and again drove goalward, only to fall short.

Phillips and Smith swapped carries as Elba moved to the 26-yard line. After Teddy Barnes tipped-toed for a 12-yard gain, Phillips carried twice, gaining 10 yards out to the 40-yard line. Six consecutive running plays left Elba with a fourth down at the Bulldog 10-yard line. On the drive's final play, Larry Phillips' halfback pass to Stan Lewis was incomplete, ending the threat.

NEWS FROM YOUNG REBELS

In just three short years at Zion Chapel, Charles Smith has given "The Little Rebel" fans something to howl about. For the past three seasons, the Rebel football fortunes have definitely been on the upswing.

Krazy Kwestion

How would you spend a million dollars?

Eddie White - Buy a Trans Am and go to California and live it up.

Boyd Killingsworth - On everything.

Sherry Ziglar - On food.

Margaret Pyfrom - On me.

Debra Jones - I'd move to Australia, buy a Vet Stingray, a new house, put some in a savings account, then I'd live a little!

Steve Reader - I wouldn't. I would invest in stocks and Swiss accounts.

Tim Wambles - I would buy a new school at Zion Chapel and watch the old one burn.

Tracy Childress - WOMEN!!

GUESS WHO?

This 10th grader was then a real cutie.

But now she's quite a beauty!

TEEN THINKERS

What do you think about smoking?

Boyd Killingsworth - It makes everything beautiful.

Debra Jones - If it's your thing, do it!

Tracy Childress - I have enough fun without smoking, and girls like me with it or without it.

Jesse James - It's cool if you like it.

Steve Reader - It makes your breath stink!

Editorial

The library at ZC has recently received some much-needed new tables. They sparkle with brightness and clean surfaces. Everyone seems to appreciate to have new smooth tables to write on instead of the old carved and cut ones that made working on them so difficult.

But, once, those old, carved ones were new and pretty like the ones we've just received. What happened to them? Someone idly doodled with his pencil and then someone else and someone else until finally they reached the condition they were in when we had to throw them away.

Of course, no one expects furniture to stay new-looking forever, as some accidental scratches can't be avoided; but wouldn't it be nice if no one deliberately marked on our new tables?

After graduation, Susie plans to attend Enterprise State Junior College and begin her study for teaching.

Congratulations, Susie, and best of luck!

JUST BEING ALIVE

We all worry 'bout fortune and fame. The thrill of living up to a great big name. But what is it all without someone's love? The someone is the King above. Isn't just being alive the greatest?

Is hating each other really worth the pain? Is finding faults in others doing the thing that is same? Loving each other is not a loss but a gain. Isn't just being alive the best thing?

If you love someone, But he loves you not, Forgive him, dear Sister, Don't try to tie a knot. Isn't just being alive worth the pain?

Is losing a friend the answer to it all? Is losing a friend worth talking to four grey walls? So go up! Because just being grateful to just be alive Is the best possible solution of all.

DEAR REBEL

We don't have an "Abby" here at ZC to help solve problems, but we do have a Rebel and here are a few letters he has answered. If you have any problems, just write to DEAR REBEL in care of Editor, Margaret Pyfrom.

Dear Rebel,
I have a squat face and plenty of hair all over my arms and legs. What would you do in my place? - Harry Allover

Get hairy.
Get a job in a circus as a talking gorilla. If that doesn't work, shave!

Rebel To Remember

We think this Rebel will be remembered because he is a nice guy who gets along with everyone well, and has a sweet friendliness about him that isn't easy to forget.

He is Donald Besdole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Besdole of Rt. 1, Elba.

Donald is adept at welding and also says he's willing to try anything, and we know he is especially talented with his hands.

We're sorry to have to say goodbye to Donald, as he graduates this year, but we feel he is a Rebel that will be remembered.

Two wrongs can never make a right.

New Book "Pea River Reflections" Is Collection Of Short Stories

"Pea River Reflections," the long-awaited collection of short stories about Coffee County is now available. The new collection of 37 short stories, beautifully entwined with history and folk-lore arrived from the printers last week, and author Marion Brunson immediately began delivering books to people who had insisted their names be on the list to get one.

Author Brunson, a native of Elba, presently serves as principal of Hillcrest Elementary School in Enterprise. "Reflections" is the fifth book he has published. While by no means is it a history of Coffee County, there are many historical facts in each of the short stories. A very convenient map of Coffee County in the front of the book marks the location where each of the stories transpired.

Illustrations throughout the book were drawn by Mary B. Rollins. Mrs. Rollins is an elementary school teacher at Hillcrest, and each drawing is adapted to the story from the descriptive words in the story.

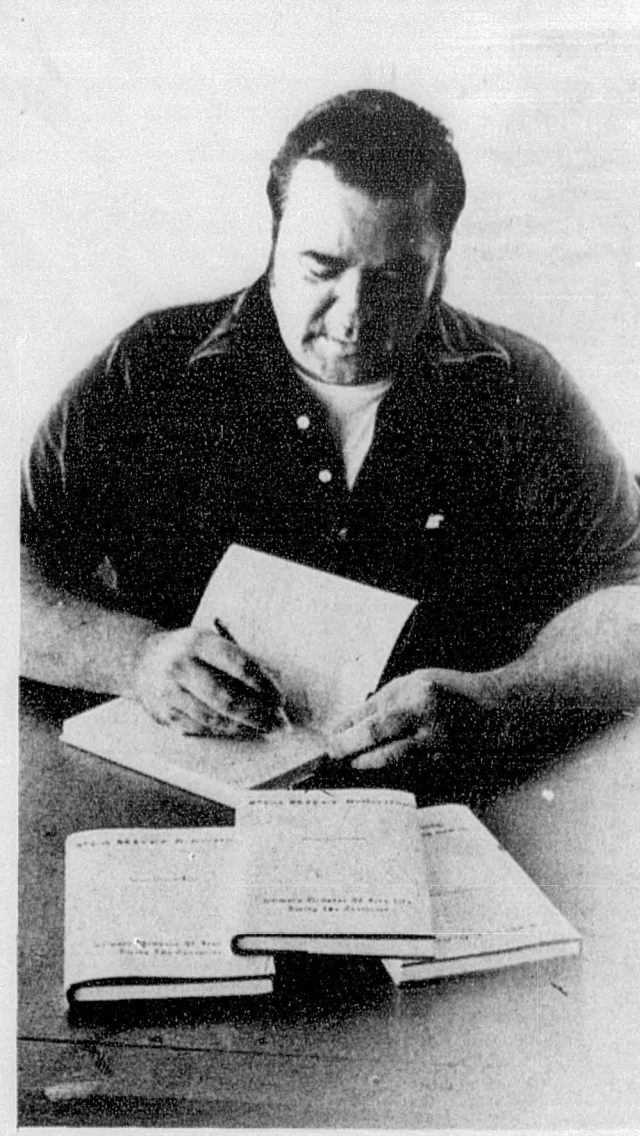

The first story is titled "Talakhatsee" which was the Indian name for Pea River. It gives some facts about the river and the early Indians. Next is a story on the Pea River Indians, the Lower Creeks and the Yuchi Tribe. It describes their way of life, their mud huts and the forts built by the first white settlers in Coffee County. Story number three is about Blue Pond Village, a well-known Indian town in the Woodland Grove Community. Blue Pond land was homesteaded by the Fossitt Family and is presently owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Asher. The story covers the Indians and the transition to "civilization" as homesteaders moved in with slaves and began clearing the land for plantations.

No book mentioning Indians is complete without one or more massacres, and this one has this with the story of the "Hart Family Massacre." This story takes place in lower Coffee County in the Fairview Community. According to the story, the warriors lay in ambush until the women of the family went to the cowpen to milk the cows late in the evening. All but a two-year-old girl were murdered. Another Indian story tells an entirely different side of the Indian. This time a little Indian baby is found in a basket under a tree near a cotton field. She was taken in by the white family and given the name Peggy. This "Indian Peggy" became a legend in Coffee County.

Rich plantation owners and their hidden gold have always been interesting to generation after generation. South of Elba near the banks of Pea River, three Holleybrothers owned plantations. Brother Hosea built a large home known as "The White House." Just before he died, Hosea was reputed to have buried a pot of gold so heavy, his teenage son could not lift it. There is no record of what happened to the hidden gold.

Preachers, then as now, and throughout history have from time to time spoken out on political issues when they felt it involved their religious beliefs. Slavery was one of these issues, and a Presbyterian preacher lost his life after preaching in Elba against slavery. He was shot, but nevertheless "His Last Sermon" was preached in Elba, and he was unusually outspoken against slavery. He heard that an ambush was waiting for him on his return to his home in Geneva, and

The stories continue with "Miracle Lake" which takes place during the Civil War, the heartbreak and sorrow of a smallpox outbreak, the touching story of a young bride leaving Elba and spending her life saving for a return visit she never got to make, the coming of the railroad, a railroad caused by two playful little girls, killings, more ghost stories. One story deals with the history of the Boll Weevil monument in Enterprise, up through the kidnapping in 1974. Also, there is the story of "The Bear Farm" as the first efforts by the government to acquire land where Fort Rucker is now located.

The final section of the book is "Shades of the Past," written in the first person by Brunson. It starts with his childhood memories of life on the banks of Pea River and in Elba. He remembers the many people whose lives touched and shaped his own. It moves on, enlarging in area as Brunson grew up and became a man. It covers his move to Enterprise as high school principal in 1961.

"We have delved into the past through this book of Pea River Reflections and have only scratched the surface," is from the last page in the book. The book is one that is dangerous to pick up if the reader has only a few minutes to read. While the stories can be read one at a time and in no special order, the danger is in becoming interested and being unable to put the book down until every story is read - and reread! This magic captures people of all ages, from the very young to the senior citizen who can almost relate to even the very early stories in the book.

ASCS NEWS

DISASTER FEED GRAIN

Hurricane Eloise also destroyed or damaged all the unharvested corn and grain sorghum in Coffee County and many local farmers may be entitled to disaster payments under the Agriculture & Consumer Protection Act of 1973. Disaster payments made under provisions of this act are intended only to provide some relief to farmers whose crop is so damaged by a disaster that they receive little or no income from the production of the crop. The payments are not intended to compensate fully for the loss. Also, coverage extends only to planted acreage up to the farm allotment on each farm and not the entire planted acreage on a farm.

Producers who have an acreage of the affected crops covered that will not be harvested for grain should come to the county ASCS office and file an application for disaster payments. This application must be filed before the crop is grazed, hogged off or otherwise used for other than grain so that necessary appraisals of the potential harvest can be made.

Producers who intend to harvest their entire grain acreage need not make application at this time. These producers should complete harvest and keep accurate records of the amount of grain harvested and if their production is low, bring their production evidence into the county office and file an application for payment. Application must be filed within 15 days after harvest is complete. Producers on affected farms must not be destroyed until specifically advised by the county ASCS office.

Producers who have any specific questions on this program should contact the local county ASCS office in New Britain. This program is available without regard to race, color, creed, sex or national origin of the applicant.

EMERGENCY CONSERVATION PROGRAM

Hurricane Eloise caused severe damage in Coffee County. Farms suffering severe damage may be eligible for assistance under the Emergency Conservation Program (ECP) administered by the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) if the damage:

1. Materially affects the productivity of the farmland.
2. If not treated will impair or endanger the land or prevent the carrying out of normal farming operations.
3. Will be so costly to correct that the farmer can not do it without federal assistance and is truly an emergency situation of the farmer.

A farmer qualifying for ECP assistance may receive up to 80% of the cost of performing the following types of measures:

1. Removing debris from farmland.
2. Restoring permanent fences.
3. Restoring permanent fences.

Farmers who feel the damage is sufficiently severe and their capabilities are such that assistance is necessary to correct the problem, should contact the county ASCS office in New Britain, and request assistance not later than October 31, 1975, the deadline for filing request. This program is available without regard to the race, color, creed, sex, or national origin of the applicant.

GREEN MANURE CROPS

With most of the peanuts harvested over the county, it is important that some type of cover be grown on the fields to protect it from the fierce winter rains. A cool season legume will protect the soil and at the same time start producing nitrogen to help reduce your fertilizer bill next spring.

A good growth of green manure or legume will produce as much corn as 50 pounds of commercial nitrogen. With the price of nitrogen at $160.00 or more per ton, this can reduce a farmer's fertilizer bill by $1000 per acre or more.

The winter legume, planted in rotation with corn and peanuts can increase yields over 10 per cent. The two most common winter legumes grown in Alabama are Vetch and Australian Winter Peas. Both of these legumes can be obtained easily by your seed and fertilizer dealer or co-operators.

Australian Winter Peas are a cool season annual legume which grows readily in a well drained soil. Temperature in Coffee County are very conducive to its fast growth.

The hairy vetch is very much the same type of plant as the Australian Winter Peas. The hairy or smooth vetch is planted at the rate of 20 pounds per acre. The cost of vetch runs about 10 cents per pound or total cost of $10.00 including the cost of the inoculant. Vetch will produce 50 pounds or more of nitrogen per acre.

The biggest advantage of the winter legume is that it will protect your fields during the winter. This means less repairing, smoothing, and plowing prior to the spring planting. If the terraces are plowed up in the fall this will save time in the spring when time is critical.

For more information about your winter legume rotation, call the SCS office in New Britain at 894-5532 or write to P.O. Box 339, New Britain, Alabama.

City Council Buys New Police Car

The Elba City Council met Tuesday night without Mayor Sam Sawyer, who was out of town attending another function. All councilmen were present. Mayor Pro-Tem Charles Ellis presided over the meeting.

The meeting opened with Mr. Grady Lanier of Alabama Electric Co-op presenting the council with copies of a 30 year franchise. The franchise would allow Alabama Electric to continue servicing the Elba Water and Electric Board with electricity. The Board several months ago signed an agreement to purchase electricity from AEC and this franchise is only to allow the co-op to deliver the "juice" to the city facilities.

Consulting Engineer, Henry Padgett reported that the city could not use indirect cost to compute percentages for a federal grant on the airport. This matter was referred to the city attorney because the city had paid TASK Consultants several thousand dollars to get the figures with the understanding they could be used.

A new police car was purchased from Ed Shering Ford in Enterprise on a lay bid of $3776.96 after the council decided to purchase without air-conditioning or radio. Ronnie Vaughan had made a motion to purchase two cars but it died for lack of a second. Vaughan opposed buying the car without the air-conditioning and radio. He then voted against buying the car but the motion carried.

Ronnie Vaughan made a motion to approve a resolution commending all city employees for the fine job they did during the floods and Hurricane Eloise. This motion passed unanimously.

Vaughan was also assigned the responsibility of getting a car ready for the local homecoming parade.

The council discussed the matter of the city paying for the cleaning of the uniforms for the police department. A motion was made to table this matter until the next meeting. Vaughan opposed but the motion carried.

A letter was read from Mr. W. L. Brunson concerning flooding in the area behind his home in Brookside. This was turned over to the street superintendent for study.

Police Chief Johnston reported that the city has no additional policemen under the CEBA program. The government will pay their salary but Elba must maintain the same number of regular officers to remain eligible. Johnston also reported on a new plan whereby his department checks on people living alone. Each morning those people so desiring the service will be called. If for some reason there is no answer, the officers will go to the home and see if the person needs help.

A group of parents connected with the Little League football team appeared before the council concerning getting their program under the recreation center area next year if facilities are prepared.

The agenda called for a discussion of an additional sales tax in Elba but the matter was tabled until the next meeting without any discussion.

A request was made for the banners heralding the Marching Tigers Band to be placed across the streets this week and remain until after Nov. 8th. This was approved and City Clerk Jack Prescott said it would be done.

A motion was made to pay the bills when the money was available and the council adjourned.

RESOLUTION HONORS EMPLOYEES

A resolution issued jointly by the City of Elba and the Elba Light and Water Board commended all employees for a job well done in both the spring floods and following Hurricane Eloise.

The resolution read in part: NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved, by the Mayor and the City of Elba and by the Light and Water Board of the City of Elba, that the Mayor, the City Council, and the Light and Water Board of the City of Elba does hereby express its deepest appreciation and its most sincere commendation to the employees of the City of Elba and to the employees of the Light and Water Department for their services and devotion to their respective jobs.

The resolution was signed by the City Clerk, Mayor, Councilmen, and members of the Water and Electric Board.

COURTHOUSE TO CLOSE MONDAY

Courthouse offices will be closed on Monday, October 27 in observance of Veteran's Day, according to Probate Judge James L. Sawyer.

Judge Sawyer also reminds businesses that October 31 is the deadline for purchasing privilege licenses.

Comer Tells Way To Eufaula

In a recent telephone interview with Eufaula coach Ed Comer, he gave the following directions on what he considers to be the easiest way to get to Eufaula.

"Go to New Brockton, turn left on Highway 122 (Clayton) and go until you meet Highway 51 North. Travel 51 through Arton, Clon, Louisville and into Clayton. In Clayton, turn right on Highway 30; it will take you into Eufaula. At end of 30, take a left, and you will go into Eufaula."

"Your best bet then would be to stop and ask directions to stadium, although you may see stadium lights if you continue through business districts."

"Drive Carefully!"

Elba School Sets Date For

Carnival

The Elba Elementary School will have its annual Halloween Carnival, Thursday night, October 30, from 5-7 p.m. Activities planned for the carnival include: Elba Buns, Fish Pond, Cake Walk, Bowling, Ring Toss, Dart Throw, Horror House, Hay Ride, and Flea Market.

Homemade cakes, candies, and sandwiches will be available, and the kitchen will also provide short orders.

Come out and enjoy this event with your children.

Police Offer

Public "Project Help"

Elba Police Chief has announced PROJECT HELP for persons living alone and others who desire help. The program will entail members of the police department calling the home of the participating person early each morning to assure everything is alright. If upon calling the officer gets no answer, a police car will be dispatched to check on the home and see if the person needs medical or other help. There will be no charge for this additional service.

Mrs. Wallace Says Thanks

To People

Mrs. Cornelia Wallace issued a letter of thanks to the people of Elba and Coffee County just before leaving for a trip to Europe with her husband, Governor George C. Wallace.

The letter is printed on Page 7 of THE ELBA CLIPPER. The letter does not have a "paid" line at the bottom because it is not a political ad, but the space is paid for by Mrs. Wallace herself.

MS Drive To Be Held Sunday

A Multiple Sclerosis campaign will be conducted in Elba this Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Mobile Lawless is the Area Chairman.

Multiple Sclerosis is a continuing, disabling disease of the brain and spinal cord which causes paralysis and other disturbances of nerve impulses which control such bodily functions as walking, talking and seeing. Severe tremors and extreme weakness are common.

Services for patients served by the Central Alabama Chapter include medicine, guidance through the Multiple Sclerosis Evaluation Clinic in Birmingham, clinical programs, counseling sessions for patients and families, and comprehensive care on a local and county level. These services are without charge.

Elba Float To Feature Girls

Elba will have a float in the parade Saturday in Dothan. The parade is traditionally held on the final day of the week-long Peanut Festival celebration.

Riding the float will be Miss Elba, Little Miss Elba, four other Elba High School girls, Miss Kingston, Miss Zion Chapel, and Miss New Brockton.

The three girls from the neighboring communities are riding at the invitation of the Elba City Council which felt these people are as much a part of Elba as those attending school in Elba.

Brenda To Compete In Dothan Friday

Brenda Oglesby, senior from Elba High School, will compete in the National Peanut Queen contest this Friday night at Dothan. She was selected as Miss Elba last April.

Brenda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oglesby.

of Elba. Little Miss Elba, Krista Dyess, participated in the Little Miss Peanut Queen last year.
